WOMAN CAN DRESS FOR YEAR FOR $239

Lighting Employees Asking Wage Increase Present Illuminating Figures.

Men whose matrimonial inclinations of feminine necessities would put a dent too deep to bridge in the incomes which shey need for their own upkeep, might perk up a bit after giancing over a list of clothes which some Toronto, Canada, women list as necessary for a year's outfit, and noticing that the total cost comes only to $233.40.

The list was made up by women employees of the Canadian General Electric Company, who are agitating for a wage increase and along with their petition presented the cost of their clothes. It is as follows:

Suif at $35 to last two years and $5 for alterations, cleaning, &c.
Winter coat to last two years, $25.
Sweater coat to last two years, $10.
One serge skirt to last two years, $10.

German Propaganda Among Cloak Workers

GERMAN propaganda has been spread to a remarkable extent among workers in the cloak, suit and skirt industry, according to Ben Erdman, who is a factor in the movement to have Four Minute Men speak to the workers and put them right on America's status in the war and the lofty ideals

"Through German language news papers and through German spice and sympathizers hundreds of workers have been given a wrong perspective of America's part in the war." said Mr. Erdman, "and it is amazing how extensively the un-truths have been promulgated." Mr. Erdman praised the coopera-

The High Cost of Fishing.

It's outrageous the way things are going up in price. When bloodworms were ten cents a dozen down at Asbury Park a few years ago, they soak you a Thrift Stamp when you ask for taem now.

I went into John Seger's for a couple of dozen crabs that were a lollar a dozen the last time I hung a bass.

"How much, John!" I asked in the most friendly tone. "How much, John?" I asked in the most friendly ione.

"Well." he replied with great firmness.

"that will set you back just one W. S."

You can't get a decent 2-0 reel now for less than seven or eight W. S. S. and the way lines have gone up is frightful. They are using the lines in airplanes that we ought to be using in fishing.

The other lay in Newark I was introduced to a couple of well known prohibitionists by the name of Jack Whatton and Celmoh. We sat down at a table to fish quietly for an hour or so, and it cost us two W. S. S. apiece before we got up.

Oh! D—n the Kaiser!

SUNAPEE LAKE, N. H., Aug. 13.—Although the lake is very low because of the drawing of the water to run factories engaged in the manufacture of woollens and machinery for the Government, fishing has been uncommonly good.

A St. Lawrence River angier of fifteen years experience catching the wily black bass, the clusive pike and the wary muscallonge desires a fresh water angier companion for a trip to that noted resort the Brst two weeks of September. No guides fees. A reasonable outlay.

Schwartz Saddling Mules to Win War.

It may interest the readers of this column to know that our good friend and worthy treasurer of the United Anglers League. Henry Schwartz, has joined the colors and is now located at Camp Devens, where his time is busily occupied selving and planning how to fit harness on halky mules, his position being that of the Forty-second Infantry's second saddler.

Our fishing companion finds this position somewhat more difficult and stremous than hooking into Freeport flounders, but these wrestling matches are simply serving to put him in the pink of condition to meet and subdue his share of the/beasts of the Rhine.
